WHEN the question of the reduction of the rate of postage was discussed in the Legislative Council, a hope was expressed the the sum charged for transit across France would be reduced. A telegram in an Australian paper shows that there is no hope of a reduction. The rate seems to have been raised. The telegram is as follows: The French postel anthorities have decided to impose a surcharge of twopence halfpenny on all colonial and British letters passing through France; they have declined to take part in the recent agreement re reduced

Messus Adamson, Bell & Co. received a telegram yesterday from London to the following effect: Empress of India challenges Hongkong Cricket Club. The message no doubt refers to an elegen composed of the passengers, with perhaps one or two officers, of the Canadian Pacific Company's fine new Feb. 6th. left Yokohams on Monday, steamer Empress of India, which is due here on the 22nd instant on her way to Vancouver. There are, we hear, about The Canadian Pacific s. s. Abyssmia, from 170 passengers on board who have availed themselves of the opportunity of a trip The Canadian Pacific steamer Parthia left round the world. It is needless to say the challenge has been accepted, and Mr. A. K. Travers, the Secretary of the Cricket Ulub, is endeavouring to organize a team. The visitors by the Empress of India will stay in Hongkong for eight or ten days, and there is every hope of a lively time, assumpool, left Singapore on the 25th Feb., ing that the weather is favourable. There is every reason to believe that the challeng ing team comprises some track players. THE last his not yet been heard of the tug-of war at Saturday's sports. The European members of the Police Force who take pride in the supremacy attained by them in tugs-of-war, strongly object to its being said that they have been knocked out by the Navy. There is no getting over the fact that a team of eight policemen was beaten by another eight composed of blue jackets, marinos and marino artillerymon, but it seems that the vanguished peefers were not what is known as the Police Team the team against which so many others have had to grean and sweat at the end of the rope in vain. The tagof war was regarded as an international one, the Navy team being composed entirely of Englishmen, while the team of Police was purely Scotch; and it was the Scotch team that was besten. What will become of Caledonia, stern and wild alter this painful taking down we do not know; but whatever happens to Scotland we are assured that the Police Team may still be presumed to be able to hold its own against any team that comes before it. Ox the 16th ultimo what might have been another rict took place in Chinkianz. Some native pilgrims were passing the concession when one of them stooned down and picked up a nail in front of a house. A Chinese policeman seeing the act immediately arrested the pilgrim and charged him with the theft of the nail. On the way to the police station the pilgrims gathered to see the arrest. At last, the crowd resched the number of one to two thousand people. Shouts, cries, carses, and imprecations were ahowered upon the policeman as well as broken tiles and stones. The British Consul and the Chinese deputy of Foreign Affairs, at once sent guards to quell and disperse the mob. The sail picking pilgrim was forthwith released from the station.
